a NOTE FROM YOUR DIRECTOR . . .

“Don’t Quit!”

by Vic Johnson—Speaker & Entrepreneur

For many years I have carried around a poem called “Don’t Quit.” One of the lines says, “stick to the fight when you’re hardest hit. It’s when things seem worst that you mustn’t quit.” In our darkest hour it’s hard to see the end of our circumstance. All we can think of are our conditions worsening. However, it’s usually at this time that our greatest growth can occur if we’ll see the moment as a growth opportunity. But we must see it as a time to learn how to control our thoughts toward an ideal that we cherish.

One thing I share with people who seek my advice (when they think their life has come apart) is the power that even the tiniest of actions can have when taken in a negative situation. Remember in science class when we learned that “a body at rest tends to remain at rest and a body in motion tends to remain in motion?” This is especially true when overcoming circumstances because “paralysis” (a body at rest) usually keeps us in the condition longer than we’d like.

But even more importantly, is that once you’ve started in motion (even though it may not seem like much) it’s now only a matter of time before you’re out, totally out, of the situation that has got you down today. My long-time favorite poem by an anonymous author is worth remembering today: When things go wrong as they sometimes will, when the road you’re trudging seems all uphill. When the funds are low and the debts are high, and you want to smile but you have to sigh. When care is pressing you down a bit, rest if you must, but don’t you quit.

Life is strange with its twists and turns, as every one of us sometimes learns. And many a fellow turns about, when he might have won had he stuck it out. Don’t give up though the pace seems slow, you may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than it seems to a faint and faltering man. Often the struggler has given up, when he might have captured the victor’s cup. And he learned too late when the night came down, how close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out, the silver tint of the clouds of doubt. And you never can tell how close you are, it may be near when it seems afar. So stick to the fight when you’re hardest hit, it’s when things seem worst that you mustn’t quit.

It is always, always too early to quit!

Team Building TIP OF THE MONTH!

Mary Kay's 4 Point Plan:

1. Before every skin care class and collection preview, ask the hostess, "Who is coming today who might be interested in doing what I do?"
2. Present your heartfelt, enthusiastic I-story at every skin care class and collection preview. Share why you began your Mary Kay business and what it means to you.
3. Select at least one person at every skin care class and collection preview and offer her the Mary Kay opportunity.
4. Offer the hostess a special gift for any person she suggests who becomes an Independent Beauty Consultant.

"We wanted to reach a goal that had been in place for 4 years...kept missing it, but then we attended the Brandon Barber Coaching workshop...WOW...we then exceeded our EXPECTATIONS... GOAL was Top 10 in RUBY...we hit #8!! It propelled us to DIAMOND CIRCLE...that is our highest income ranking to date in Mary Kay...over $200,000 in NSD commissions alone!"

"Maybe we would have reached this level EVENTUALLY...but at a much higher cost of time and frustration? But what if we didn't reach it EVER???"

-Rebecca Evans, Sr. Nat'l Sales Director

To the Amazing...

Words of Wisdom

Enthusiasm is the key not only to achievement of great things, but to the accomplishment of anything worthwhile. Enthusiasm is a way of life. It's a magic spark that transforms being into living, and it makes hard work enjoyable. Enthusiasm is the greatest elixir known to man. Nothing will help you to sell yourself better than the power of your personal enthusiasm.

~Mary Kay Ash
